

ROUNDWOOD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The next talk in the Roundwood Historical Society's 2018 Series will take place on Tuesday, April 10th at 8pm in the Roundwood Parish Hall. The title of the talk is "The story of Josephine Heffernan's Bracelet" and will be given by historian Brian White. Brian is Chairperson of Bray Cualann Historical Society and was directly involved in the detective and research work required to solve the mystery of the bracelet.

Brian will discuss Josephine Heffernan, who had established two careers before deciding to go to America, where she joined the US Army as a nurse and served with distinction in WW1. In 2002 her WW1 bracelet was found in a schoolyard in Rimacourt, France, which sparked a 15 year global wide investigation generating a lot of press and TV coverage in Ireland and France including the History Show which was aired on the 18th November 2017.

We look forward to seeing you on Tuesday 10th April at 8pm. The entrance fee for members is €3 and for non-members is €5 – payable at the door.
